Rights Respecting Schools

Article 40 states that a child accused or guilty of breaking the law must be treated with dignity and respect. They have the right to legal assistance and a fair trial that takes account of their age. Governments must set a minimum age for children to be tried in a criminal court and manage a justice system that enables children who have been in conflict with the law to reintegrate into society.

Our school upholds Article 40 of the UNICEF Rights Respecting Schools framework by fostering a supportive and restorative approach to behaviour management. We ensure that all students are treated with dignity and fairness, promoting conflict resolution through discussion and understanding. By encouraging positive relationships, teaching responsibility, and providing appropriate support, we help students learn from their actions while feeling valued and respected within the school community.

Donations

Mill Greens Duke of Edinburgh group continue to collect food for our local food bank, any donations welcome. Thank you for your continued support!

Red Nose Day

Red Nose Day will be returning on Friday the 21st of March. This year, the event will focus on supporting those in need during the current living crisis, focusing on issues like lack of food and homelessness. Mill Green would like to raise as much money as possible for such a wonderful cause. We will be inviting staff and students to “do something funny for money” this could include wearing red, dressing up or crazy hair, be as creative as you can! We are asking for a £1 voluntary contribution which will be donated to Red Nose Day.

Reminders

Outerwear: Please send your young person into school with appropriate clothing including warm & waterproof outerwear which can be worn outside during break and lunchtimes and at times when learning takes place outdoors.

Medical Appointments: Where routine medical appointments e.g. dental checks are needed, these should be booked out of school hours where possible to minimise any unnecessary disruption to education. Proof of appointments should be shared with the school office in advance of medical appointments.

British Values

Our Half-Termly British Values Focus is:

Mutual Respect

At Mill Green we aim to ensure that pupils understand respect and tolerance for others around them which is central to British values. Pupils should be taught that there are many differences in culture, religions and beliefs in our nation and should be educated to know how to accept and tolerate these differences. Mutual respect and tolerance are values which are essential to the way we run classrooms and to the way any workplace operates. In any organisation, learners and staff will sign contracts which say that they will not discriminate against others and will behave in an appropriate way which includes mutual respect and tolerance. Behaviour in the classroom, listening to what others have to say and having respectful discussions in class, are key ways to exemplify these.

Quote of the week

“Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.”
